Digitale Kultur at YOU 2003 in Berlin „Art that brings your computer to life“

Digitale Kultur e.V. will present itself from Oct. 22nd till Oct 24th in front of an expected 160000 visitors at this years YOU youth fair in Berlin. It is representing an estimated 10000 active computer and multimedia artists from around the globe, the so called "Demoscene". In cooperation with Turtle Entertainment and supported by Intel GmbH the association introduces the fairs visitors to the combined creative artistic and programming abilities of the demoscene. On display are the scenes highlights produced in the last few years.

"Our goal is to give young people the opportunity to be creative! Away from being the recipient, towards the endless possibilities the computer is offering them besides Word, Winamp and Warcraft." summarizes Stefan Keßeler, executive chairman of Digitale Kultur e.V..

About Digitale Kultur e.V.

Digitale Kultur was found in 2003 as a friendly society in Cologne, Germany. The association presents the computer as a means of expressing artistic creativity and aims at supporting the communication between creative people. To achieve this the association organizes several related events and supports newcomers in the demoscene as well as creative computer artists.
